

2008 ANZAM Conference: Reviewing

If you are interested in serving as a Reviewer for the 2008 ANZAM Conference you need to contact the Stream Chair of the stream in which you have expertise.

Please note the timing of the review period (July-August) and ensure that you will be available to review typically up to 3 papers during this time. You are expected to provide constructive advice for authors on how to improve their papers for presentation at the conference and subsequent publication.
